

ORIENT-ation

Inspired by our current exhibition "Fiona Tan: Disorient", the Gallery of Modern Art would like to invite groups of refugees, asylum seekers, and migrants to join us for a block of four to six workshops. During these sessions, we aim to provide a safe and welcoming environment to meet, share experiences of migration and promote well being, all while engaging with Fiona Tan's artwork.

Sessions are free and include travel expenses and refreshments. Each session lasts up to two hours and can be arranged according to the group's availability.

For more information or to book a block of sessions, please email GoMAbookings@Glasgowlife.org.uk or phone 0141 287 3050 and ask to speak to a member of the learning team.
